

NEW ENGLAND PIANO TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION PRESENTS

Victor Rosenbaum, master teacher

NEPTA Piano Teachers performing.

Victor Rosenbaum has performed widely as soloist and chamber music performer in the United States, Europe, Asia, Israel, and Russia in such prestigious halls as Tully Hall in New York and the Hermitage in St. Petersburg, Russia. Festival appearances have included Tanglewood, the Rockport Chamber Music Festival, Kfar Blum and Tel Hai (in Israel), Yellow Barn, Kneisel Hall (Blue Hill), Musicorda, Masters de Pontlevoy (France), the Heifetz Institute, and the International Keyboard Institute and Festival in New York. Recent seasons have brought him to Chicago, Minneapolis, Tokyo, St. Petersburg (Russia), Tel Aviv, and Jerusalem for recitals.

A renowned teacher, Rosenbaum has given master classes at London's Royal Academy of Music, Royal College of Music and the Guildhall School, the conservatories of St. Petersburg and Moscow, as well as the Menuhin School, the Toho School in Tokyo and the Jerusalem Music Center. He was Visiting Professor of Piano at the Eastman School, and guest teacher at Juilliard. He is on the faculty of the Mannes College of Music, the New England Conservatory, (former chair of the piano department), and the Longy School of Music, where he served as Director and President from 1985 to 2001.

His highly praised recording of Schubert, was described by Classical disCDigest as "a powerful and poignant record of human experience." The release of the last three Beethoven sonatas on the same label was named by American Record Guide critic Alan Becker as one of the top ten classical recordings of 2005. CDs featuring music by Schubert and Mozart are forthcoming.
